-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Supplemental Office Action

Pursuant to a second preliminary amendment (filed 1/7/04), claim 1 has been amended, and claims 73-74 added. Claims 1-19, 51, 56, 58-62 and 73-74 are now pending. A first Office action on the merits was mailed 1/6/04, and so the examiner could not have been aware of the existence of a second preliminary amendment. This Office action acknowledges receipt of the second preliminary amendment; no new issues are raised at this time.

※

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C §102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this action.

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) as being anticipated by Yoshino (USP 4,707,468).

The teachings of Yoshino remain as described in the Office action mailed 1/6/04. Applicants have not had the opportunity to respond to this ground of rejection, and so no additional explanation is provided at the present time.

The claim remains anticipated.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(a) as being anticipated by Bialer (WO 99/43309).

The teachings of Bialer remain as described in the Office action mailed 1/6/04. Applicants have not had the opportunity to respond to this ground of rejection, and so no additional explanation is provided at the present time.

The claim remains anticipated.

No claim is allowed.
